

Press release Delphi 6/25/2018:

Elisabeth Eklund has once again been appointed as Non-Governmental Advisor for the Swedish Competition Authority within the International Competition Network

Elisabeth Eklund, Partner who is heading Delphi's competition law practice, has once again been appointed as Non-Governmental Advisor for the Swedish Competition Authority within the International Competition Network, ICN, in the working group for Unilateral Conduct during the coming year. Elisabeth has actively participated in the work of ICN for the last three years and was one of the working-group's panelists at the ICN's Annual Conference in New Delhi in April 2018.

Elisabeth Eklund is ranked by several international ranking institutes as one of the leading competition lawyers in Sweden. Elisabeth has extensive experience of all forms of competition law advice. She advises companies in various industries in abuse of dominance cases, cartel investigation and vertical restrictions. She also handles merger control, dawn raids, and is regularly counsel in competition litigations and arbitrations as well as regulatory proceedings with a particular focus on pharmaceuticals, medical devices, fast-moving consumer goods, waste disposal, transports, food and energy. She is also a guest lecturer at Stockholm University and is a frequent speaker at conferences and has published a number of articles in competition law journals.

Delphi is one of the top commercial law firms in Sweden. We help our clients with mergers and acquisitions. We advise them on matters of banking, finance and capital markets. We represent clients in court and in arbitration and are acknowledged as being extremely competent in public procurement, environmental law and real estate law.

Many of us are specialists in high-tech fields such as IT, intellectual property and life science. Our drive and our interest in technology and business probably explain, in part, our success. We are often praised for our commercial sense and our ability to understand the client's business.

Our clients are to be found primarily in Scandinavia, Europe and North America. We also co-operate with law firms globally and regularly assist clients on international matters. We have a total workforce of approximately 185, of which more than 120 are lawyers. We have offices in Stockholm, Göteborg, Malmö, Linköping and Norrköping.
